My dear Father,

The Parcel is ready I find, & but little time is allowed me to write. - We have sent and applied the money you sent, as you desired - Mr Wilson's Rec^t is enclosed. - The Bibles will be forwarded in a few days to Weymouth. - You will still sell, I hope, the Scotch Bibles, & to Persons you can depend upon - and not let them be quite lost. -

We have agreed for the next Editⁿ. of Keats's Poems, and are to have the Refusal of his future works. I cannot think he will fail to become a great Poet, though I agree with you in finding much fault with his Education &c.
These are not very likely to appear in any other of his Productions. - With love as usual

I am my dear Father

Your most affec^t Son

John Taylor
